

Boxthorn

Description: Boxthorn is a shrub that grows up to 6m with stems that branch at right angles. The stems have sharp spines. The bright green leaves are usually clustered. White or pale mauve flowers appear from July to March followed by orange-red berries.

Habitats: Cliffs and sand dunes and colonises areas of low vegetation.

Flowering time: July – March

